

Short Bibliography:

Jayne Crowe MB BCH BAO, MRCP, DRCOG, DCH, DTM, PG Dip. Pharm Med, qualified in medicine from Queen's University in Belfast. Dr Crowe has worked in clinical medicine both in the hospital setting and as a General Practitioner and is on the Specialist Register of General Practice. She is a Member of the Royal College of General Practitioners, an Adjunct Assistant Professor in Pharmaceutical Medicine, Pharmacology and Therapeutics and a member of the Management Committee of the Masters in Pharmaceutical Medicine at Trinity College. Jayne is a member of the National Committee for Clinical Effectiveness, a Committee member of the Association of Pharmaceutical Physicians of Ireland and a delegate on the European Commission's Safe and Timely Access to Medicines for Patients' Committee. Prior to her appointment as Director, Jayne as Clinical Assessment Manager, represented the HPRA at EU level at the Coordination Group for Mutual Recognition and Decentralised procedures (CMDh). She is currently the Chair of the EU Joint Good Clinical Practice Inspectors' Working Group/CMDh, Working Party

