

Apostolis Aivaliotis

Currently he holds the role of Intellectual Property Senior manager in Pharmathen SA, a pharmaceutical company mainly focused in the development of complex generic and supergeneric drug products.

Mr. Apostolos Aivaliotis has a Chemistry degree from the University of Ioannina & has also acquired an MSc in Industrial Pharmacy from the school of Pharmacy of the University of Athens. He has then moved to work in Specifar S.A. as an R & D analyst & for the last 12 years he went through various position in Pharmathen S.A. Intellectual Property department. His expertise includes drafting and prosecution of patent applications, patent landscape searching and freedom to operate decisions.